Archway announces 15th birthday party details

Kearney, Neb. – The Archway is inviting the community to help it celebrate its 15th birthday on Sat., July 11.

The event is open to the public and will take place during The Archway’s normal operating hours from 9 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. Games, food, model trains, Nebraska Game and Parks Family Fishing Day as well as discounted exhibit admission will highlight the day.

“We’ve welcomed over 1.5 million visitors to The Archway over the last 15 years. That means there’s been millions of memories made right here and we want to celebrate those,” said Archway Marketing Coordinator Jace Robinson.

Event Coordinator Kara Stevens said, “We’ve got a day of family fun planned with Archie’s Arcade games as well as a display from the Tri-City Model Railroaders and a day of free fishing coordinated by Nebraska Game and Parks.”

For a complete listing of events and times, visit www.archway.org or follow The Archway on social media.

The Archway opened during the summer of 2000. It welcomed Former President Bill Clinton shortly after opening and was also the filming site for a portion of the 2002 award-winning film About Schmidt,” starring Jack Nicholson.
