Archway to host DHS naturalization ceremony

Kearney, Neb. – The Archway will be the site of a Department of Homeland Security naturalization ceremony on Thursday, April 30.

Nearly 80 applicants are expected to be in attendance for the ceremony that is free and open to the public. The ceremony begins at 1:30pm in the Platte River Room (formerly the food court) and is expected to last about an hour. Refreshments will be provided after the ceremony.
