

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

5 November 2014

Contact

Jace Robinson
Marketing Coordinator
308-237-1000

Archway announces new board member

Kearney, Neb. – The Archway announced the addition of Tony Taylor to the Archway Foundation board today.

Taylor is the store director for the Kearney Hy-Vee. Taylor said, “Kearney is a great, forward thinking community with amazing schools and a unique culture. Becoming part of The Archway board is an exciting opportunity to become more involved in this great community and to be a part of an exciting time at The Archway.”

Taylor said the recent efforts by The Archway board, staff and volunteers have gotten The Archway going in the right direction and he is anxious to keep the momentum going. “We need to continue hosting community events and getting young people involved to create an emotional connection,” said Taylor.

###